

Brutus Calavera Coloring Contest

Grades preK-12

Sponsored by the Department of Spanish and Portuguese, the Center for Ethnic Studies, and the Athletic Department at The Ohio State University

Help Brutus get ready for Day of the Dead!

Día de los Muertos [Day of the Dead] is a cultural tradition predominantly celebrated in Mexico and Central America, as well as recently by Latinxs in the United States. Before the arrival of the Spaniards, Aztecs engaged in month-long celebrations honoring the dead. Ever evolving, the tradition's contemporary practitioners continue to reshape and redefine this ancient ritual of remembrance. At the heart of the tradition is a joyful celebration of life—both those in the present and those in past.

The calavera is an important element of this celebration, as it playfully imitates scenes of everyday life to remind us not to take life too seriously. They represent death as the great equalizer of life that does not discriminate based on socio-economic hierarchy or other inequalities endured while living.

This coloring contest, aimed at children and teenagers grades preK-12, introduces this festivity to those unfamiliar with it, and strives to strengthen the relationship between Ohio State and Latinx culture.
